

INTO GIVING

A MULTITUDE OF THANKS!

Savvy students share skills to raise funds

A group of INTO Manchester Students have raised nearly £1500/$2000 for INTO Giving. The students were following a course designed to help them gain the Manchester University Link Tutor Award (MULTA). To gain the award, the students needed to show that they had developed their INTO MCR personal attributes (independence, neighbourliness, team-orientation, motivation, commitment and resilience) and their sense of social responsibility, one of the core goals of the University of Manchester. The group set up an online gaming event, an online storefront, a karaoke session, an e-swear jar(!), a t-shirt stall, and more!

Developed by teachers Caroline Bullock, Sarah Greatorex, Helen Ray and Sara Shields, the course sets out to encourage students to reflect on how their personal attributes develop in their every day lives, before asking them to work independently to apply these attributes to demonstrate their commitment to social responsibility - in this case, supporting INTO Giving charities.

Photo: MULTA students from INTO Manchester

'I'm shamelessly proud of the work that the teachers and managers have put into implementing this initiative at such a challenging time and equally blown away by the success that the project has had,' Programme Director Diarmuid Fogarty said. The INTO Giving Team would like to thank everyone involved for raising an incredible total that will go a long way in supporting our educational projects.

GOOD NEWS STORIES

Prize Draws

UK draw day!

Thank you to all those who bought tickets and joined us for the live draw! The event raised £2,578, which is incredible! Congratulations to all the winners! We will be posting your prize soon!

Stateside supporters

During April, if you signed up to a monthly donation, you've been entered to win Toms shoes or Barnes and Noble vouchers. Winners announced next week - Thank you & Good Luck!

Calling all runners

Get your running shoes on and raise money for world education! Always an awesome day, the Brighton Marathon promises to be a very special one this year.

We provide you a snazzy INTO Giving running shirt, support throughout and lots of cheering and encouragement on the big day!

Email isabel.knight@into-giving.com if you're keen to join the team

Kindness SHINES through

This month eight generous INTO Employees donated their SHINE Award prize money to INTO Giving!

Thank you to all those who donated their winnings, totalling £260 ($360) going to our education projects.

BREAKING NEWS:

As India battles an increasing Covid 19 crisis, INTO Giving has given an emergency grant to Building Blocks, Bangalore - We are providing food to families whose children attend the project, at a time when people are unable to work due to lockdown.

Your donations mean that when the world changes we can react and help those most in need.

Click here to see a video message from INTO Giving Director, Chris Walker.